

News & Events Round-up 14 January

Great upcoming events selection this week, including a workshop on After Rights: Politics, Ethics, Aesthetics, co-convened by Louiza Odysseos, an upcoming Development Lecture with Peter Newell, and an event chaired by Gurminder K Bhambra, exploring reflections on COP26 in the context of colonialism.

Why do a lot of vegans not recommend Veganuary? Read about research conducted with British Pakistani, Indian, and Bangladeshi families looking into sex-selective abortion to advance understandings of son preferences, and don't forget the 'Other news' section, which includes NSS promotion details.
